"daily percentage rate" means the rate determined by dividing the annual percentage rate by 365;

"default rate" means a higher annual percentage rate permitted by section 28;

"Rule of 78" means the amount of interest charge for required months derived by subtracting the sum of all whole numbers from one to the number of incomplete months under the agreement (both inclusive) from the sum of all the whole numbers from one to the number of total months in the agreement (both inclusive), then divided by the sum of all the whole numbers from one to the number of total months in the agreement (both inclusive) and multiplied by the total interest charge under the agreement, as illustrated in Schedule 3;

"unpaid balance" under a credit contract at any time means the difference between all amounts credited and all amounts debited to the debtor under the contract at that time;

"unpaid daily balance" for a day under a credit contract means the unpaid balance under the contract at the end of that day.

(2) A credit contract may specify, for the purposes of payments under the contract, when a day ends.

Limit on interest charges

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the maximum amount of an interest charge that may be imposed or provided for under a credit contract is -

(a) if only one annual percentage rate applies to the unpaid balances under the contract - the amount determined by applying the daily percentage rate to the unpaid daily balances;

(b) in any other case - the sum of each of the amounts determined by applying each daily percentage rate to that part of the unpaid daily balances to which it applies under the contract.

(2) An interest charge under a credit contract for a month, a quarter or half a year may be determined by applying the annual percentage rate or rates, divided by 12 (for a month), by 4 (for a quarter) or by 2 (for half a year), to the whole or that part of the average unpaid daily balances to which it applies, except for a hire purchase agreement where Rule of 78 will apply.

(3) The regulations may provide for the calculation of unpaid daily balances in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) This section does not prevent the imposition of a default rate of interest permitted by section 28.

Early debit or payment of interest charges prohibited

27. (1) A credit provider must not, at any time before the end of a day to which an interest charge applies, require payment of the interest charge.

Default interest

28. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a credit contract may not provide that an annual percentage rate applicable under a credit contract to any part of the unpaid balance will differ according to whether the debtor is in default under the contract.

(2) A credit contract may provide for such a differential rate if the higher rate is imposed only in the event of default in payment, in respect of the amount in default and while the default continues.

Division 4 - Fees and charges

Prohibited credit fees or charges

29. The regulations may specify credit fees or charges or classes of credit fees or charges that are prohibited for the purposes of this Act.

Fees or charges passed on to other parties

(2) The actual amount payable pursuant to subsection (1) is to be determined after taking into account any discount or other rebate or other applicable allowance received or receivable by the credit provider or a related body corporate within the meaning of the Companies Act.

(3) If the actual amount paid by the credit provider to another person was not ascertainable when the debtor paid an amount to the credit provider for the fee or charge and is less than the amount paid by the debtor, the credit provider must refund or credit the difference to the debtor.

(4) Nothing in this section requires a rebate on tax payable by the credit provider or a related body corporate to be taken into account in determining the actual amount payable or paid by a credit provider.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents a commission from being payable or paid in accordance with section 134.

Division 5 - Credit provider's obligation to account

(e) the debtor was in default under a continuing credit contract during the preceding 120 days, or during the statement period and the 2 immediately preceding statement periods, whichever is the shorter time, and the credit provider has, before the commencement of the statement period, exercised a right not to provide further credit under the contract and has not provided further credit during the period.

(2) A written notice under subsection (1) need not be given if the credit provider agrees with the debtor as to the disputed amount and gives the debtor a written notice advising of the agreed liability.

(3) If in the case of a continuing credit contract a disputed entry appears in a statement of account in which a date for payment of the amount of the account, or part of that amount, is shown, notice of dispute must be given to the credit provider on or before that date.

(4) In a case other than that described in subsection (3), notice of dispute must be given to the credit provider within 30 days of receiving the statement of account in which the disputed amount, or part of that amount, was first shown.

(5) A credit provider must not begin enforcement proceedings on the basis of a default arising from disputed liability until at least 30 days have elapsed from the time a written explanation or advice as to agreement was given, as the case may be.

(6) A debtor or credit provider may apply to a court to determine any disputed liability and, if satisfied that a liability is genuinely disputed, the court may determine the matters in dispute and make such consequential orders as it thinks just.

(7) If an application is made to a court under subsection (6) within 30 days after an explanation is given pursuant to subsection (1), the credit provider must not, without leave of the court, begin enforcement proceedings on the basis of a default arising from the disputed liability.

(2) A court may, after allowing the applicant, the credit provider and any guarantor a reasonable opportunity to be heard, by order change a credit contract in any manner set out in section 66, and may make such other orders as it thinks fit, or may refuse to change the credit contract.

(3) A court may, if it thinks it appropriate in the circumstances, stay any enforcement proceedings under a credit contract, and make such other orders as it thinks fit, until an application under section 66 has been determined.

Credit provider may apply for variation of change

69. (1) A credit provider under a credit contract that has been changed by an order under section 68 (2) may apply to the court for an order varying or revoking the order.

(2) A credit provider subject to a stay of enforcement proceedings or other order under section 68 (3) may apply to the court for an order varying or revoking the stay or order.

(3) On an application under this section, the court may vary or revoke the order or stay to which the application relates as it thinks fit, or may refuse the application.

Court may re-open unjust transactions

70. (1) A court may, if satisfied on the application of a debtor, mortgagor or guarantor that, in the circumstances relating to the relevant credit contract, mortgage or guarantee at the time it was entered into or changed (whether or not by agreement), the contract, mortgage, guarantee or change was unjust, re-open the transaction that gave rise to the contract, mortgage, guarantee or change.

(2) In determining whether a term of a particular credit contract, mortgage or guarantee is unjust in the circumstances relating to it at the time it was entered into or changed, a court must have regard to the public interest and to all the circumstances of the case and may have regard to the following-

(a) the consequences of compliance, or noncompliance, with all or any of the provisions of the contract, mortgage or guarantee;

(b) the relative bargaining power of the parties;

(c) whether or not at the time the contract, mortgage or guarantee was entered into or changed, its provisions were the subject of negotiation;

(d) whether it was reasonably practicable for the applicant to negotiate for the alteration of, or to reject, any of the provisions of the contract, mortgage or guarantee or the change;

(e) whether any of the provisions of the contract, mortgage or guarantee (before and after any change) impose conditions that are unreasonably difficult to comply with, or not reasonably necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of a party to the contract, mortgage or guarantee;

(f) whether the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor, or a person who represented the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor, was reasonably able to protect the interests of the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor because of his or her age or physical or mental condition;

(g) the form of the contract, mortgage or guarantee and the intelligibility of the language in which it is expressed;

(h) whether, and if so when, independent legal or other expert advice was obtained by the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor;

(i) the extent to which the provisions of the contract, mortgage or guarantee (before and after any change) and their legal and practical effect were accurately explained to the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor and whether or not the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor understood the provisions and their effect;

(j) whether the credit provider or any other person exerted or used unfair pressure, undue influence or unfair tactics on the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor and, if so, the nature and extent of that unfair pressure, undue influence or unfair tactics;

(k) whether the credit provider took measures to ensure that the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor understood the nature and implications of the transactions and, if so, the adequacy of those measures;

(l) whether at the time the contract, mortgage or guarantee was entered into or changed, the credit provider knew, or could have ascertained by reasonable inquiry of the debtor at the time, that the debtor could not pay in accordance with its terms or not without substantial hardship;

(m) whether the terms of the transaction or the conduct of the credit provider is justified in the light of the risks undertaken by the credit provider;

(n) the terms of other comparable transactions involving other credit providers and, if the injustice is alleged to result from excessive interest charges, the annual percentage rate or rates payable in comparable cases;

(o) any other relevant factor.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (f), a person is taken to have represented a debtor, mortgagor or guarantor if the person represented the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor, or assisted the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor to a significant degree, in any negotiations before or when the credit contract, mortgage or guarantee was entered into or changed.

(4) In determining whether a credit contract, mortgage or guarantee is unjust, a court must not have regard to any injustice arising from circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable when the contract, mortgage or guarantee was entered into or changed.

(5) In determining whether to grant relief in respect of a credit contract, mortgage or guarantee that if finds to be unjust, a court may have regard to the conduct of the parties to the proceedings in relation to the contract, mortgage or guarantee since it was entered into or changed.

(6) This section does not apply to

(a) a change in the annual percentage rate or rates payable under a contract, or to an establishment fee or charge or other fee or charge, in respect of which an application may be made under section 72; or

(b) a change to a contract under this Division.

(7) In this section, "unjust" includes unconscionable, harsh or oppressive.

Orders on re-opening of transactions

71. A court may, if it re-opens a transaction under this Division, do anyone or more of the following, despite any settlement of accounts or any agreement purporting to close previous dealings and create a new obligation-

(a) re-open an account already taken between the parties;

(b) relieve the debtor and any guarantor from payment of any amount in excess of any amount the court, having regard to the risk involved and all other circumstances, considers to be reasonably payable;

(c) set aside either wholly or in part, or revise or alter, an agreement made or mortgage given in connection with the transaction;

(d) order that the mortgagee takes all steps necessary to discharge the mortgage;

(e) give judgment for or make an order in favour of a party of such amount as, having regard to the relief (if any) which the court thinks fit to grant, is justly due to that party under the contract, mortgage or guarantee;

(f) give judgment or make an order against a person for delivery of goods to which the contract, mortgage or guarantee relates and which are in the possession of that person;

(g) make ancillary or consequential orders.

Court may review unconscionable interest and other charges

72. (1) A court may, if satisfied on the application of a debtor or guarantor that -

(a) a change in the annual percentage rate or rates under a credit contract to which section 59 (1) or (5) applies;

(b) an establishment fee or charge;

(c) a fee or charge payable on early termination of a credit contract; or

(d) a fee or charge for a prepayment of an amount under a credit contract, is unconscionable, annul or reduce the change or fee or charge and may make ancillary or consequential orders.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a change to the annual percentage rate or rates is unconscionable if and only if it appears to the court that -

(a) it changes the annual percentage rate or rates in a manner that is unreasonable, having regard to any advertised rate or other representations made by the credit provider before or at the time the contract was entered into, the period of time since the contract was entered into and any other consideration the court thinks relevant; or

(b) the change is a measure that discriminates unjustifiably against the debtor when the debtor is compared to other debtors of the credit provider under similar contracts.

(3) In determining whether an establishment fee or charge is unconscionable, a court is to have regard to whether the amount of the fee or charge is equal to the credit provider's reasonable costs of making a decision on an application for credit and the initial administrative costs of providing the credit, or is equal to the credit provider's average reasonable costs of those things in respect of that class of contract.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a fee or charge payable on early termination of the contract or a prepayment of an amount under the credit contract is unconscionable if and only if it appears to the court that it exceeds a reasonable estimate of the credit provider's loss arising from the early termination or prepayment, including the credit provider's average reasonable administrative costs in respect of such a termination or prepayment.

Time limit

73. (1) An application (other than an application under section 72) may not be brought under this Division more than 2 years after the relevant credit contract is rescinded or discharged or the credit provider writes off the relevant debt, whichever occurs first.

(2) An application under section 72 may not be brought more than 2 years after the relevant change takes effect or fee or charge is charged under the credit contract or the credit provider writes off the relevant debt, whichever occurs first.

Joinder of parties

74. (1) If it appears to a court that a person other than a credit provider or a mortgagee (a "third party") has shared in the profits of, or has a beneficial interest prospectively or otherwise in, a credit contract or mortgage that the court holds to be unjust, the court may make any order in relation to the third party that the court considers appropriate.

(2) Before making an order under subsection (1), the court must -

(a) join the third party as a party to the proceedings; and

(b) give the third party an opportunity to appear and be heard in the proceedings.

Part 5 - ENDING AND ENFORCING CREDIT CONTRACTS, MORTGAGES AND GUARANTEES

Division 1 - Ending of credit contract by debtor

Debtor's or guarantor's right to pay out contract

75. (1) A debtor or guarantor under a credit contract is entitled to pay out the credit contract at any time.

(2) The amount required to pay out a credit contract (other than a continuing credit contract) is the total of the following amounts-

(a) the amount of credit;

(b) the interest charges and all other fees and charges payable by the debtor to the credit provider up to the date of termination;

(c) reasonable enforcement expenses;

(d) early termination charges, if provided for in the contract, less any payments made under the contract and any rebate of premium under section 138.

Statement of pay out figure

76.-(1) A credit provider must, at the written request of a debtor or guarantor, provide a written statement of the amount required to pay out a credit contract (other than a continuing credit contract) as at a date the debtor or guarantor specifies.

(2) If so requested, the credit provider must also provide details of the items which make up the amount referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The statement under subsection (1) must also contain a statement to the effect that the amount required to pay out the credit contract may change according to the date on which it is paid.

(4) A credit provider must give a statement complying with this section within 7 days after the request is given to the credit provider.

(5) A credit provider that contravenes this section commits an offence.

Court may determine pay out figure if credit provider does not provide a pay out figure

77. (1) If a credit provider does not provide a statement of the amount required to pay out a credit contract (other than a continuing credit contract) in accordance with this Part after a request is duly made by a debtor or guarantor, a court may, on the application of the debtor or guarantor, determine the amount payable on the date of determination, the amount by which it increases daily and the period for which the determination is applicable.

(2) A credit contract is discharged if an amount calculated in accordance with a determination under subsection (1) is tendered to the credit provider within the applicable period.

Surrender of mortgaged goods and goods subject to sale by instalments

78. (1) If -

(a) a credit contract takes the form of a sale of goods by instalments and title in the goods does not pass until all instalments are paid; or

(b) the credit provider has a mortgage over goods of the debtor or guarantor, the debtor or mortgagor may give written notice of an intention to surrender the goods to the credit provider or, if the goods are in the credit provider's possession, require the credit provider in writing to sell the goods.

(2) A debtor or mortgagor may surrender goods provided under a credit contract to the credit provider at the credit provider's place of business during ordinary business hours within 7 days of the date of the notice given under subsection (1), or within any other period or at any other place or time agreed with the credit provider.

(3) A credit provider must, within 14 days after a debtor or mortgagor, pursuant to subsection (1) surrender the goods or requires the credit provider to sell the goods, give the debtor or mortgagor a written notice containing the estimated value of the goods and any other information required by the regulations.

(4) If a debtor or mortgagor, within 21 days after a notice under subsection (3) is given, requests by written notice return of the goods to the debtor or mortgagor or withdraws the requirement to sell the goods (and, being a debtor, is not in default under the terms of the credit contract), the credit provider must return to the debtor or mortgagor any goods surrendered by the debtor or mortgagor under subsection (2) and must not comply with the requirement to sell them.

(5) If a debtor or mortgagor, within 21 days after a notice under subsection (3) is given, nominates in writing a person who is prepared to purchase the goods from the credit provider at the estimated value, or at any greater amount for which the credit provider has obtained a written offer to buy the goods, the credit provider must offer to sell the goods to that person for the estimated value or, if there is a written offer to buy the goods for a greater amount, that amount.

(6) A credit provider must, if surrendered goods are not required to be returned under subsection (4), as soon as reasonably practicable (or at any other time the credit provider and the debtor or mortgagor agree on) sell the goods in accordance with subsection (5) or, if there is no nominated buyer or the nominated buyer under that subsection does not buy the goods, for the best price reasonably obtainable.

(7) A credit provider must credit the debtor or mortgagor with a payment equivalent to the proceeds of a sale under subsection (5) less any amounts which the credit provider is entitled to deduct from those proceeds.

(8) A credit provider that sells mortgaged goods under this section is entitled to deduct from the proceeds of that sale only the following amounts -

(a) the amount currently secured by the mortgage in relation to the credit contract, not being more than the amount required to discharge the contract;

(b) the amount payable to discharge any prior mortgage to which the goods were subject;

(c) the amounts payable in successive discharge of any subsequent mortgages to which the goods were subject and of which the credit provider had notice;

(d) the credit provider's reasonable enforcement expenses.

(9) A credit provider must give the debtor or mortgagor a written notice stating the gross amount realised on a sale under this section, the net proceeds of the sale, the amount credited to the debtor or mortgagor and the net amount due under the credit contract.

(10) A credit provider that contravenes this section commits an offence.

Compensation to debtor or mortgagor

79. (1) If, on an application by a debtor or mortgagor, a court is satisfied that the credit provider sold goods under section 78(6) but is not satisfied that they were sold as soon as reasonably practicable, or at the time the credit provider and debtor or mortgager agreed on, or for the best price reasonably obtainable, the court may order the credit provider to credit the debtor or mortgager with an amount, fixed by the court, exceeding the net proceeds of sale.

(2) On application by a debtor or mortgagor, the mortgagee under any prior mortgage to which goods are subject, or the mortgagee under any subsequent mortgage of which the credit provider has notice, a court, if not satisfied that a credit provider complied with section 78, may direct the credit provider to compensate the debtor, mortgagor or mortgagee for any loss suffered as a result.

(3) The onus of proving that section 78 was complied with is on the credit provider.

Division 2 - Enforcement of credit contracts, mortgages and guarantees

Enforcement of credit contract or mortgage

80. (1) A credit provider must not begin enforcement proceedings against a debtor in relation to a credit contract unless the debtor is in default under the credit contract and-

(a) the credit provider has given the debtor, and any guarantor, a default notice, complying with this section, allowing the debtor a period of at least 30 days from the date of the notice to remedy the default; and

(b) the default has not been remedied within that period.

(2) A credit provider must not begin enforcement proceedings against a mortgagor to recover payment of money due, or take possession of, sell, appoint a receiver for or foreclose in relation to property subject to a mortgage, unless the mortgagor is in default under the mortgage and -

(a) the credit provider has given the mortgagor a default notice, complying with this section, allowing the mortgagor a period of at least 30 days from the date of the notice to remedy the default; and

(b) the default has not been remedied within that period.

(3) A credit provider that contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence.

(4) A default notice under subsection (1) must specify the default and the action necessary to remedy it and that any subsequent default of the same kind that occurs during the period of 30 days may be the subject of enforcement proceedings without further notice if it is not remedied within the period.

(5) A credit provider is not required to give a default notice or to wait until the period specified in the default notice has elapsed, before beginning enforcement proceedings, if -

(a) the credit provider believes on reasonable grounds that it was induced by fraud on the part of the debtor or mortgagor to enter into the credit contract or mortgage;

(b) the credit provider has made reasonable attempts to locate the debtor or mortgagor but without success;

(c) the court authorises the credit provider to do so; or

(d) the credit provider believes on reasonable grounds -

(i) that the debtor or mortgagor has removed or disposed of mortgaged goods under a mortgage related to the credit contract or under the mortgage concerned;

(ii) that the debtor or mortgagor intends to remove or dispose of mortgaged goods without the credit provider's permission; or

(iii) that urgent action is necessary to protect the mortgaged property.

(6) If a credit provider believes on reasonable grounds that a default is not capable of being remedied-

(a) the default notice under subsection (1) or (2) need only specify the default; and

(b) the credit provider may begin enforcement proceedings 30 days after the date of the notice.

(7) This section is in addition to any provision of any other law relating to the enforcement of real property mortgages and does not prevent the issue of notices to defaulting mortgagors under other legislation.

Default may be remedied

81. (1) If a default notice under section 80(1) or (2) states that the credit provider intends to take action because the debtor or mortgagor is in default under the credit contract or mortgage, the debtor, mortgagor or guarantor may remedy the default within the period specified in the notice, and the contract or mortgage is then reinstated and any acceleration clause cannot operate.

(2) A debtor, mortgagor or guarantor does not remedy a default if, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the debtor or mortgagor is in default under the credit contract or mortgage because of the breach specified in the notice or because of a subsequent breach of the same type.

Requirements to be met before credit provider can enforce guarantee against guarantor

82. (1) A credit provider must not, under a guarantee, enforce a judgment against a guarantor unless -

(a) the credit provider has obtained a judgment against the debtor for payment of the guaranteed liability and the judgment remains unsatisfied for 30 days after the credit provider has made a written demand for payment of the judgment debt;

(b) a court has relieved the credit provider from the obligation to obtain a judgment against the debtor on the ground that recovery from the debtor is unlikely;

(c) the credit provider has made reasonable attempts to locate the debtor but without success; or

(d) the debtor is insolvent.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence.

Requirements to be met before credit provider can repossess mortgaged goods

83. (1) A credit provider must not, without the consent of the court, take possession of mortgaged goods if the amount currently owing under the credit contract related to the relevant mortgage is less than 25% of the amount of credit provided under the contract or $2,000, whichever is the lesser.

(2) The restriction in subsection (1) does not apply -

(a) to a continuing credit contract; or

(b) if the credit provider believes on reasonable grounds that the debtor has removed or disposed of the mortgaged goods, or intends to remove or dispose of them, without the credit provider's permission or that urgent action is necessary to protect the goods.

(3) A credit provider that contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

(4) In any proceedings in which it is established that a credit provider has taken possession of mortgaged goods contrary to subsection (1), the burden of establishing that the possession of the goods was lawfully taken by virtue of subsection (2) lies on the credit provider.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents a credit provider from accepting the return of goods under section 78.

Acceleration clauses

84. (1) For the purposes of this Part, an "acceleration clause" is a term of a credit contract or mortgage providing that -

(a) on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a particular event, the credit provider becomes entitled to immediate payment of all, or a part, of an amount under the contract that would not otherwise have been immediately payable; or

(b) whether or not on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a particular event, the credit provider has a discretion to require repayment of the amount of credit otherwise than by repayments fixed, or determined on a basis stated, in the contract, but does not include any such term in a credit contract or mortgage that is an on demand facility.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) an "on demand facility" is a credit contract or mortgage under which -

(a) the total amount outstanding under the contract or mortgage is repayable at any time on demand by the credit provider; and

(b) there is no agreement, arrangement or understanding between the credit provider and the debtor or mortgagor that repayment will only be demanded on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a particular event.

Requirements to be met before credit provider can enforce an acceleration clause

85. (1) An acceleration clause is to operate only if the debtor or mortgagor is in default under the credit contract or mortgage and -

(a) the credit provider has given to the debtor and any guarantor, or to the mortgagor, a default notice under section 80;

(b) the default notice contains an additional statement of the manner in which the liabilities of the debtor or mortgagor under the contract or mortgage would be affected by the operation of the acceleration clause and also of the amount required to pay out the contract (as accelerated); and

(c) the default has not been remedied within the period specified in the default notice (unless the credit provider believes on reasonable grounds that the default is not capable of being remedied).

(2) A credit provider is not required to give a default notice under section 80 or to wait until the period specified in the default notice had elapsed before bringing an acceleration clause into operation, if -

(3) This section is in addition to any provision of any other law relating to the enforcement of real property mortgages and does not prevent the issue of notices to defaulting mortgagors under other legislation.

Part 6 - CIVIL PENALTIES FOR DEFAULTS OF CREDIT PROVIDERS

Division 1 - Civil penalties for breach of key requirements

Key requirements

- 100. (1) For the purposes of this Division a "key requirement" in connection with a credit contract (other than a continuing credit contract) is a requirement of -
- (a) paragraph (B), (C), (D), (E), (G), (H), (J), or (N) (a) and (b) of Schedule 1;
  - (b) section 21 (1) (at the time the credit contract is entered into.)
- (2) For the purposes of this Division, a "key requirement" in connection with a continuing credit contact is a requirement of-
- (a) paragraph (B)(b), (C) (D) (G) or (H) of Schedule 1;
  - (b) section 21(1);
  - (c) paragraph (E) of Schedule 2;
  - (d) section 33.
- (3) A key requirement relating to a disclosure or a statement of account includes the requirements set out in sections 14 and 31 respectively as to the manner in which the disclosure or statement is to be made out but does not include any requirement set out in the regulations.

Application for order relating to key requirements

101. (1) A party to a credit contract, a guarantor or the Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs may apply to a court for an order under this Division.

(2) A debtor or guarantor may not apply for an order under this Division in respect of a contravention of a key requirement in respect of a contract if the contravention is or has been subject to an application for an order made by the credit provider or Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs.

(3) Subsection (2) does not prevent an application from being made for an order for the payment of compensation under section 107.

Civil penalty may be imposed for contravention of key requirement

102. (1) A court must, on an application being made under section 101, by order declare whether or not a credit provider has contravened a key requirement in connection with the credit contract or contracts concerned.

(2) If a court decides that a credit provider has contravened a key requirement, the court may make an order, in accordance with section 103, requiring a credit provider to pay an amount as a civil penalty.

(3) In considering the imposition of a civil penalty, a court must have regard primarily to the prudential standing of the credit provider concerned, or of any subsidiary of the credit provider (within the meaning of the Companies Act) if -

(a) the credit provider or subsidiary takes deposits or is a borrowing corporation (within the meaning of that Act); and

(b) the credit provider requests the court to do so.

(4) A court, in considering the imposition of a civil penalty, must also have regard to-

(a) the conduct of the credit provider and debtor before and after the credit contract was entered into;

(b) whether the contravention was deliberate or otherwise;

(c) the loss or other detriment (if any) suffered by the debtor as a result of the contravention;

(d) when the credit provider first became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the contravention;

(e) any systems or procedures of the credit provider to prevent or identify contraventions;

(f) whether the contravention could have been prevented by the credit provider;

(g) any action taken by the credit provider to remedy the contravention or compensate the debtor or to prevent further contraventions;

(h) the time taken to make the application and the nature of the application;

(i) any other matter the court considers relevant.

(5) For the purposes of determining an application for an order under this Division, or the amount of a civil penalty, a court must treat a contravention of a key requirement that occurs only because of another contravention of a key requirement as being a contravention of the same kind.

(6) If a provision referred to in section 100 contains several requirements, a court must treat contraventions of more than one of those requirements as a single contravention of the one key requirement for the purposes of determining the amount of a civil penalty.

(7) A court may, if it thinks it appropriate in the circumstances, order that particulars of any matter relating to an application for an order under this Division must not be published.

Penalty if application made by debtor or guarantor

103. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if an application under section 101 was made by a debtor or a guarantor, the maximum civil penalty that may be imposed by the court under section 102(2) is-

(a) except as provided by paragraphs (b) and (c) - all interest charges payable under the contract from the date it was made;

(b) in the case of a contravention of a key requirement relating to a statement of account of a continuing credit contract - all interest charges payable under the contract for the period to which the statement of account relates;

(c) in the case of contravention of a key requirement relating to prohibited monetary obligations - all interest charges accruing under the contract from the date the contravention occurred.

(2) If a debtor or guarantor satisfies the court that the debtor has suffered a loss as a result of the contravention by a credit provider of a key requirement the court may impose by way of additional civil penalty an amount not less than the loss suffered.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), the amount of future interest charges payable under a credit contract is to be calculated on the assumptions set out in sections 158 and 160.

Payment of penalty to debtor or guarantor

104. (1) An amount of civil penalty ordered by a court to be paid under section 102(2) may be set off by the debtor or guarantor against any amount that is due or becomes due to the credit provider under the credit contract.

(2) If there is no amount due to the credit provider, the amount of the civil penalty is a debt due by the credit provider to the debtor or guarantor.

(3) An order made by a court on an application by a debtor or a guarantor may include any directions the court considers appropriate relating to the payment of the amount owed by the debtor or the credit provider as a result of the order.

*Penalty if application made by credit provider or
Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs*

105. (1) If an application under section 101 is made by a credit provider or the Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs, the maximum civil penalty that may be imposed by the court under section 102(2) is an amount calculated so that the total civil penalty for all contraventions of the requirement in the Fiji Islands (as disclosed by the credit provider) does not exceed $500,000.

(2) For the purpose of determining a civil penalty, a court must, in making an order, determine the appropriate amount of penalty for all disclosed contraventions of the key requirement and determine the amount payable according to the number of contracts affected by the disclosed contraventions.

Payment of penalty to fund

106. An amount of civil penalty ordered by a court to be paid under section 105 must be paid by the credit provider into a fund established and operated under the regulations for the purposes of this section or, if no such fund is established, to the Department of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs.

Compensation for debtor or guarantor

107. (1) A court may, on application by a debtor or a guarantor, order that a credit provider pay to the debtor or guarantor an amount by way of compensation for loss arising from the contravention of a key requirement.

(2) A court may only order an amount to be paid by way of compensation if the debtor or guarantor satisfies the court that the debtor or guarantor has suffered a loss arising from the contravention. The amount of compensation is not to exceed the amount of the loss.

(3) A court may not make an order under this section if the debtor or guarantor has previously obtained or been refused a civil penalty referred to in section 103(2) relating to the same contravention.

(4) An amount payable under this section does not affect the amount of penalty for the purposes of section 105.

Recognition of civil penalty determined in other jurisdictions

108. (1) The Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs may register with the court an order made by a court of another country under a provision of a law of that other country corresponding to sections 101 and 105.

(2) On registration of an order under subsection (1), the order is taken to be an order under section 102 or 105 as the case may be for the purpose of enforcement.

*General provisions relating to applications by credit providers or
Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs*

109. (1) An application under section 101 by a credit provider or by the Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs -

(a) may apply to any one or more credit contracts; and

(b) may apply to all or any class of credit contracts entered into by the credit provider during a specified period.

(2) A court may require notice of an application under section 101 to be published by notice, in a form approved by the court, in a newspaper circulating throughout the Fiji Islands as the court determines.

(3) Notice of an application by a credit provider under section 101 must be given by the credit provider to the Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs.

Department of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs may represent interests of debtors

110. The Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs may apply to the Court to become a party to an application under this Division and, if joined as a party, has standing to represent the public interest and the interests of debtors.

Directions pending Court's decision

111. (1) A court may, before disposing of an application under section 101 or 107 by a debtor or guarantor, make any directions it considers appropriate to protect the interests of the debtor or guarantor.

(2) Subject to any directions of the court under subsection (1), an application by a debtor or guarantor does not prevent -

(a) any proceedings for the enforcement of the obligations of the debtor or guarantor from being taken; or

(b) any rights over property the subject of a mortgage from being exercised.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a reference to the disposal of an application includes a reference to its withdrawal by the applicant.

(4) A credit provider affected by a direction of a court may apply to the court for variation of the direction and the court may confirm, vary or revoke the direction.

Offences

112. Nothing in this Division affects the liability of a person for an offence against this Act or the regulations.

Division 2 - Civil effect of other contraventions

Civil effect of other contraventions

113. (1) If a credit provider contravenes a requirement of or made under this Act, other than one for which a civil penalty is provided by Division 1 or by any other provision of this Act, a court may order the credit provider to make restitution or pay compensation to any person affected by the contravention and, in that event, may make any consequential order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) An application for the exercise of the court's powers under this section may be made by the Director of Fair Trading and Consumer Affairs or by any person affected by the contravention.

Part 7 - RELATED SALE CONTRACTS

Division 1 - Interpretation and application

Meaning of sale contract

114. For the purposes of this Act, a "sale contract" is a contract for any one or more of the following-

(a) a contract for the sale of goods;

(b) a contract for the supply of services.

Sale contracts to which this Part applies

115. This Part applies to or in respect of a sale contractor proposed sale contract only if the sale of the goods or supply of services concerned is financed, or is proposed to be financed, wholly or partly by the provision of credit to which this Act applies.

Linked credit providers and tied credit contracts

116. (1) For the purposes of this Act, a "linked credit provider" of a supplier means a credit provider-

(a) with whom the supplier has a contract, arrangement or understanding relating to-

(i) the supply to the supplier of goods in which the supplier deals;

(ii) business carried on by the supplier of supplying goods or services; or

(iii) the provision to persons to whom goods or services are supplied by the supplier of credit in respect of payment for those goods or services;

(b) to whom the supplier, by arrangement with the credit provider, regularly refers persons for the purpose of obtaining credit;

(c) whose forms of contract or forms of application or offers for credit are, by arrangement with the credit provider, made available to persons by the supplier; or

(d) with whom the supplier has a contract, arrangement or understanding under which contracts or applications or offers for credit from the credit provider may be signed by persons at the premises of the supplier.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a "tied continuing credit contract" is a continuing credit contract under which a credit provider provides credit in respect of the payment by a debtor for goods or services supplied by a supplier in relation to whom the credit provider is a linked credit provider.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a "tied loan contract" is a credit contract entered into between a credit provider and a debtor where -

(a) the credit provider knows or ought reasonably to know that the debtor enters into the credit contract wholly or partly for the purposes of payment for the goods or services supplied by a supplier; and

(b) at the time the credit contract is entered into the credit provider is a linked credit provider of the supplier.

Division 2 - Liability of credit providers for suppliers' misrepresentations

Credit provider liable with respect to supplier's misrepresentations etc. about tied credit contract

117. (1) If there is a tied loan contract or a tied continuing credit contract in respect of a sale contract, any representation, warranty or statement made (whether orally or in writing) by the supplier, or by any person acting on behalf of the supplier, to the debtor in relation to the tied loan contract or tied continuing credit contract gives the debtor the same rights against the credit provider as the debtor would have had if it had been made by the credit provider.

(2) Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies to which a credit provider may be entitled, a credit provider is entitled to be indemnified by the person who made the representation, warranty or statement, and any person on whose behalf it was made, against any damage suffered by the credit provider through the operation of this section.

Division 3 - Liability of credit providers in relation to goods

Right to damages under sale contract against both supplier and linked credit provider

118. (1) If -

(a) a supplier supplies goods, or causes goods to be supplied, to a linked credit provider of the supplier and a debtor enters into a contract with the linked credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by way of sale of the goods to the debtor; or

(b) a debtor enters into a contract with a linked credit provider of a supplier for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by the supplier of goods or services, or goods and services, to the debtor, and the debtor suffers loss or damage as a result of misrepresentation, breach of contract, or failure of consideration in relation to the contract, the supplier and the linked credit provider are, subject to this Division, jointly and severally liable to the debtor for the amount of the loss or damage, and the debtor may recover that amount by action in accordance with this section in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) A linked credit provider of a particular supplier is not liable to a debtor by virtue of subsection (1) in proceedings arising under that subsection if the credit provider establishes-

(a) that the credit provided by the credit provider to the debtor was the result of an approach made to the credit provider by the debtor that was not induced by the supplier;

(b) (if the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied loan contract applies) that-

(i) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier's financial standing and business conduct was good;

(ii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, but before the tied loan contract was entered into, the linked credit provider had not had cause to suspect that the debtor might, if the contract was entered into, be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to the contract as referred to in subsection (1); and

(iii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, but before the tied loan contract was entered into, the credit provider had not had cause to suspect that the supplier might be unable to meet the supplier's liabilities as and when they fell due; or

(c) (if the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied continuing credit contract entered into by the linked credit provider applies) that, having regard to-

(i) the nature and volume of business carried on by the linked credit provider; and

(ii) such other matters as appear to be relevant in the circumstances of the case, the linked credit provider, before becoming aware of the contract of sale, or of proposals for the making of the contract of sale (whichever the linked credit provider first became aware of), had not had cause to suspect that a person entering into such a contract with the supplier might be entitled to claim damages against, or recover a sum of money from, the supplier for misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration as referred to in subsection (1).

Limits on debtor's right of action against linked credit provider

119. (1) Subject to subsection (2), in relation to a contract referred to in section 118 (1) under which a credit provider claims damages or an amount of money from a debtor, the debtor may set up any liability of the credit provider under section 118 in diminution or extinction of the debtor's liability.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a debtor may not, in respect of a liability for which, by reason of section 118, a supplier and a linked credit provider are jointly and severally liable-

(a) bring proceedings to recover an amount of loss or damage from the credit provider; or

(b) if proceedings are brought against the debtor by the linked credit provider, make a counterclaim or exercise the right conferred by subsection (1) against the credit provider, unless the debtor brings the action against the supplier and the credit provider jointly or, in the case of a counterclaim or right conferred by subsection (1), claims in the proceedings against the supplier in respect of the liability by third-party proceedings or otherwise.

(3) Subsections (2), (5)(a) and (6)(a) do not apply in relation to proceedings where -

(a) the supplier is insolvent, cannot be located after reasonable enquiry, or has died or been dissolved; or

(b) in the opinion of the court in which the proceedings are taken, it is not reasonably likely that a judgment obtained against the supplier would be satisfied and the court has, on the application of the debtor, declared that subsections (2),(5) (a) and (6) (a) do not apply in relation to the proceedings.

(4) The liability of a linked credit provider to a debtor for damages or for a sum of money in respect of a contract referred to in section 118 (1) is not to exceed the sum of -

(a) the amount of credit under the tied loan contract or tied continuing credit contract;

(b) the amount of interest (if any) or damages in the nature of interest allowed or awarded against the linked credit provider by the court; and

(c) the amount of costs (if any) awarded by the court against the linked credit provider or supplier or both.

(5) If in proceedings arising under section 118, judgment is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider, the judgment -

(a) must not be enforced against the linked credit provider unless a written demand made on the supplier for satisfaction of the judgment has remained unsatisfied for not less than 30 days; and

(b) may be enforced against the linked credit provider only to the extent of the amount calculated in accordance with this section, or so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier, whichever is the lesser.

(6) If in proceedings in respect of the liability arising under section 118, a right conferred by subsection (1) is established against a linked credit provider, the debtor-

(a) may not receive the benefit of the right unless judgment has been given against the supplier and linked credit provider, a written demand has been made on the supplier for satisfaction of the judgment and the demand has remained unsatisfied for not less than 30 days; and

(b) may receive the benefit only to the extent of the amount calculated in accordance with this section or so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier, whichever is the lesser.

Liability of supplier to linked credit provider

120. Unless the linked credit provider and supplier otherwise agree, the supplier is liable to the linked credit provider for the amount of a loss suffered by the linked credit provider, being an amount not exceeding the maximum amount of the linked credit provider's liability under section 119 (4) and, unless the court otherwise determines, the amount of costs (if any) reasonably incurred by the linked credit provider in defending the proceedings by reason of which the liability was incurred.

Interest may be awarded

121. (1) Despite any other law, where, in proceedings arising under section 118, judgment is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider or against a linked credit provider for an amount of loss or damage, the court in which the proceedings are taken must, on the application of the debtor, unless good cause is shown to the contrary, award interest to the debtor against the supplier and credit provider or against the credit provider, as the case may be, on the whole or a part of the amount from the time when the debtor became entitled to recover the amount until the date on which the judgment is given, at a rate prescribed by the regulations.

(2) In determining whether good cause is shown against awarding interest under this section on the whole or part of an amount of loss or damage, the court is to take into account any payment made into court by the supplier or credit provider.

Subrogation of credit provider

122. If a judgment given in proceedings arising under section 118 is enforced against a linked credit provider of a particular supplier, the credit provider is subrogated to the extent of the judgment so enforced to any rights that the debtor would have had but for the judgment against the supplier or any other person in respect of the loss or damage suffered by the debtor as a result of the misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to the contract from which the liability arose.

Division 4 - Termination of related transactions

Termination of sale contract which is conditional on obtaining credit

123. (1) If a purchaser of goods or services makes it known to a supplier that credit is required in order to pay for the goods or services and the purchaser, after making reasonable endeavours to do so, fails to obtain credit on reasonable terms, the purchaser is entitled to terminate the sale contract.

(2) A purchaser may terminate a sale contract under this section even though goods or services have already been supplied under the contract but, if practicable, goods supplied under the sale contract must be returned to the supplier.

(3) If a sale contract is terminated under this section-

(a) the supplier is entitled to -

(i) reasonable compensation for damage to, or deterioration of, goods supplied under the sale contract (other than fair wear and tear) up to the date of their return to the supplier or, if they are not returned, the cash price of the goods; and

(ii) the reasonable value of the services supplied under the sale contract up to the date of termination; and

(b) the purchaser is entitled (subject to the supplier's entitlement referred to above) to the return of money paid under the sale contract.

Termination of (or recredit under) tied credit contract if sale contract terminated

Consumer leases to which this Part applies

- (a) the lessee is a natural person ordinarily resident in the Fiji Islands, or is a body corporate or unincorporate formed in and under the law of the Fiji Islands;
- (b) the goods are hired wholly or predominantly for personal, domestic or household purposes;
- (c) a charge is or may be made for hiring the goods and the charge together with any other amount payable under the consumer lease exceeds the cash price of the goods; and
- (d) the lessor hires the goods in the course of a business of hiring goods or as part of or incidentally to any other business of the lessor.

(2) If not all the lessees under a consumer lease ordinarily reside, or are strata corporations formed, in the Fiji Islands, this Act applies only if goods are first hired under the lease in the Fiji Islands.

- (a) this Part applies to all transactions or acts under the lease whether or not they take place in the Fiji Islands; and
- (b) this Part continues to apply even though the lessee ceases to be ordinarily resident in the Fiji Islands.

(2) Goods hired under a lease are presumed conclusively for the purposes of this Part not to be hired wholly or predominantly for personal, domestic or household purposes if the lessee declares, before hiring the goods, that the goods are hired wholly or predominantly for business purposes.

(3) A declaration under subsection (2) is ineffective for the purposes of this section if the lessor (or any other person who obtained the declaration from the lessee) knew, or had reason to believe, at the time the declaration was made that the goods were in fact hired wholly or predominantly for personal, domestic or household purposes.
